Acting (Re)Considered

Theory and Practice

Acting (Re)Considered is a challenging and extraordinarily eye-opening collection of seminal essays about intercultural theories of acting, training and the actor's body in performance. Acting (Re)Considered will be is an essential part of every theatre student's repertoire, whether they are studying the history, the theory, or the practice of acting. Included are discussions on acting by or about most of the major figures who have shaped twentieth century performance, such as: * Meyerhold * Copeau * Decroux * Artaud * Brecht * Growtowski * Barba * Suzuki * Fo * Warrilow * Rosenthal * DaFoe No other volume on acting is as wide-ranging, as comprehensive, or as international as this one. Acting (Re)Considered transforms the possibilities for teachers and students of acting.
