Uniting the Tailors

Trade Unionism amongst the Tailors of London and Leeds 1870-1939

This book is not only about the tailoring industry and its trade unions; it is about the experience of eastern European immigrants in a trade as old as the Bible and yet as new as the electric sewing machine; it is about the role of women in a new industry and about the impact of socio-economic change on fashion. Finally, it is about the way in which subdivisions and differences were accommodated under the umbrella of one particular trade union.

This book is not only about the tailoring industry and its trade unions; it is about the experience of eastern European immigrants in the trade, the role of women in a new industry and about the impact of socio-economic change on fashion.
