Routledge Library Editions: George Eliot

This set reissues 5 books on George Eliot originally published between 1963 and 1989. The volumes examine many of Eliot's most respected works, including Middlemarch, The Mill on the Floss and Silas Marner. As well as providing in-depth analyses of Eliot's work, this collection also includes an extensive collection of her critical articles written between 1846 and 1868. This set will be of particular interest to students of literature.
