Selecta I - Research Contributions

Research Contributions

A selection of the mathematical writings of Paul R. Halmos (1916 - 2006) is presented in two Volumes. Volume I consists of research publications plus two papers of a more expository nature concerning with Hilbert Space. The remaining expository and all the popular writings are in the second volume. The papers are arranged chronologically - those published before 1950 deal with probability and measure theory, those after 1950 with operator theory.
