

Research on Project, Programme and Portfolio Management

Projects as an Arena for Self-Organizing

This volume brings together selected and extended papers representative of work presented at the 8th IPMA Research Conference, which was held online between 9 and 11 September 2020. It explores the topics of project, programme and portfolio management, and self-organizing in and through projects.

Offering international and multidisciplinary perspectives, this book answers questions such as:

- What is the impact of self-organization on organizational structures, processes, cultures and leadership?
- How can we define the transformative power of self-organization?
- What is the motivation of individuals to perform activities, to engage with others and organizations in order to get things done?
- Which kinds of leadership best support self-organizing in projects?
- What have disciplines like natural science, psychology, philosophy, sociology and management to offer in this respect?
- What are the cultural limitations and potentials regarding self-organization in projects and how do we deal with them?

Research on Project, Programme and Portfolio Management is a valuable resource for all researchers and project management professionals interested in autonomous working and self-organizing.
