

Artificial Intelligence Act. AI Act

Brussels Commentary

The Book

The Brussels Commentary Martini/Wendehorst, Artificial Intelligence Act is the updated and extended version of the German book Martini/Wendehorst, KI-VO. The AI Act is the first unified legal framework on artificial intelligence worldwide. Initiated by the European Commission in 2021 it aims to foster innovation while focussing on potential risks and ensuring compliance with fundamental rights. Structured article-by-article this book provides orientation by scientifically-based explanation while including many practical examples.

Advantages at a Glance

- comprehensive and scientifically substantiated explanations
- structured Article-by-Article
- assessment of the relationship between the AI Act and other regulations such as GDPR.

The Target Group

For legal practitioners, in-house counsel, supervisory authorities, scholars and companies.
