

Distributed Computing and Internet Technology

First International Conference, ICDCIT 2004, Bhubaneswar, India, December 22-24, 2004, Proceedings

Kansas City) and Ashok Srivastava (NASA Ames Research Center, USA). The tutorials were on security issues in distributed systems and enterprise resource planning. We take this opportunity to thank various people and organizations who contributed to make this conference a grand success. Our heartfelt thanks to the track chairs whose full cooperation and technical assessments were crucial to achieve this high level of quality even in the first edition of the conference. The full participation of the program committee members and the reviewers made it possible to complete the peer-review process in time. We are extremely thankful to them. We would like to thank our advisors and general chair for having confidence in us. Our special thanks go to A. Samanta and P. K. Mishra of KIIT for their support and encouragement in organizing this conference. We gratefully acknowledge the financial and logistic support extended by KIIT in hosting this conference. The All India Council of Technical Education (AICTE), Government of India, New Delhi provided a generous grant-in-aid for organizing ICDCIT. We thankfully acknowledge AICTE's support. We are thankful to Springer for its cooperation in publishing the proceedings in such a short time. We are also thankful to our parent departments, Department of Computer Science and Engineering, IIT Kanpur and Department of Computer and Information Sciences, University of Hyderabad, for providing infrastructural support to carry out the editorial work. We thank Krithi Ramamritham and Pradeep Khosla for agreeing to deliver the lectures in the plenary sessions.
