Graph-Theoretic Concepts in Computer Science

16th International Workshop WG '90, Berlin, Germany, June 20-22, 1990

This volume gives the proceedings of WG '90, the 16th in a series of workshops. The aim of the workshop series is to contribute to integration in computer science by applying graph-theoretic concepts. The workshops are unusual in that they combine theoretical aspects with practice and applications. The volume is organized into sections on: - Graph algorithms and complexity, - VLSI layout, - Multiprocessor systems and concurrency, - Computational geometry, - Graphs, languages and databases, - Graph grammars. The volume contains revised versions of nearly all the papers presented at the workshop. Several papers take the form of preliminary reports on ongoing research.

This volume gives the proceedings of WG '90, organized into sections on: Graph algorithms and complexity, VLSI layout, Multiprocessor systems and concurrency, Computational geometry, Graphs, languages and databases, Graph grammars.
