

A Logical Approach to Philosophy

Essays in Honour of Graham Solomon

Graham Solomon, to whom this collection is dedicated, went into hospital for antibiotic treatment of pneumonia in October, 2001. Three days later, on Nov. 1, he died of a massive stroke, at the age of 44. Solomon was well liked by those who got the chance to know him—it was a revelation to find out, when helping to sort out his affairs after his death, how many "friends" he had whom he had actually never met, as his email included correspondence with philosophers around the world running sometimes to hundreds of messages. He was well respected in the philosophical community more broadly. He was for several years a member of the editorial board for the Western Ontario Series in Philosophy of Science. While he was employed at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo, Ontario, several of us at the University of Waterloo always regarded our own department as a sort of second academic home for him. We therefore decided that it would be appropriate to hold a memorial conference in his honour. Thanks to the generous financial support of the Humphrey Conference Fund, we were able to do so in May 2003. Many of the papers in this volume were presented at that conference.
