Revue de Qumran

Revue de Qumran was founded by Jean Carmignac in 1958. It is a leading international journal dedicated to the study of the Dead Sea Scrolls and the significance of these manuscripts for our understanding of the Ancient Near East in the Hellenistic and Roman period. It concerns ancient Jewish or Christian literature, history, archaeology and epigraphy. Articles of interest in English, French, German, Italian or Spanish are welcome. A detailed book review section dedicated to the Dead Sea Scrolls and cognate literature is included in every issue.
