

The Cornell Hospitality Quarterly (CQ) is a peer reviewed, applied, scholarly journal published quarterly in association with Cornell University's School of Hotel Administration and the newly formed Cornell SC Johnson College of Business. CQ aims to be the source of the most important advances in research that is specific to the hospitality industry. Conceptual and empirical papers, case studies, and research notes on any industry-relevant topic, from any discipline and using any methodology are welcome, provided they offer new insights about important industry challenges and issues. We offer constructive, developmental feedback from some of the leading industry experts and thought leaders, and work in a collaborative fashion with authors to ensure that only the highest quality papers are published.
