

Social Behaviour: Colorcards

This title features 44 cards on skills for daily living. These full-colour cards illustrate a variety of familiar situations and activities that can be used with older children and adults who require intervention in the area of appropriate social behaviour. Some cards show a good understanding of social skills, while others show a poor understanding by one or more people. Situations include: disturbing other people; jumping the queue; helping a disabled person; caring for an animal; and cheating in an exam. The cards also show non-verbal communication, such as posture, gesture, facial expression, respecting personal space and appearance. Intended for use in educational settings and/or therapy contexts under the supervision of an adult. This is not a toy.
